RESULT OF A STRIKE

Workmen Violated Contract with Construction Employers' Association.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 18.—Building operations in Chicago are at a standstill today, and more than 100,000 workmen are idle, as a result of a lockout ordered by the executive committee of the Building Construction Employers' Association in Chicago.

Yesterday, the organization, which includes in its membership every building contractor in the city, issued an ultimatum declaring that unless members of the carpenters, lathers, iron workers and other unions who have been on strike for several weeks, returned to work this morning and agreed to abide by provisions of their wage contracts, which run until 1921, the builders would indefinitely suspend all operations.

The strikers refused to return to work, and the executive committee of the building employers sent a letter by special messenger to every contractor, with instructions immediately to stop work of every character.

Airplane view of Mt. Vernon.

The old home of George Washington, nestling in the Virginia hills and facing the Potomac river, has long been a favorite destination of tourists. They have been denied this pretty view, though, as was Washington, whose great love for his Mt. Vernon home is history.

WILSON URGES FULL ADOPTION

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, July 18.—President Wilson still insisted that the peace treaty and League of Nations covenant be ratified without reservation. Senator Capper said today after a conference with the President.

Senator Capper said the President took the position that adoption of reservations by the Senate was certain to be misinterpreted abroad and would set a precedent which might be followed by others.

COUNT CAROLYI SAFE AFTER MANY EFFORTS TO MAKE HIS ESCAPE

Former President of Hungarian Republic Reaches Italy on Way to American.

ITALIAN OFFICERS AID

Headed Hungary Immediately After Collapse of the Central Powers in War.

(By Associated Press.)

Berlin, Thursday, July 17.—Count Michael Carolyi, former President of the Hungarian Republic, has arrived in Italy, after several attempts to leave Hungary, and will go to America, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Kreis Zeitung.

Several weeks ago, it is said, Count Carolyi escaped to Austria, but he was made prisoner by Austrians and returned to Budapest.

The Count, the dispatch adds, then sought and procured assistance of Italian military authorities, who sent him in charge of a guard to Italy.

When the armistice with Austria-Hungary was signed last November, Count Carolyi, who had been leader of the Hungarian Independent Party, proclaimed Hungary a republic.

He remained in office until March, when he resigned and turned over authority to the Communists headed by Bela Kun.

He gave as a reason for his action the plea that he could not recognize the boundaries of Hungary as outlined by the peace conference.

GREAT FIRES RAGE IN THREE STATES TOWNS IN DANGER

Thousands of Men in Idaho, Montana and Washington Summoned to Battle.

Great Forests of Fine Pine are in Path of Flames now Beyond Control.

Parched Timberland and High Wind Combine to Aid Fire

(By Associated Press.)

Spokane, Wash., July 18.—Every available man in western Montana, northern Idaho and eastern Washington is being employed by the Federal Forest Service and the private forest protective associations to fight the forest fires in Montana and Idaho that today were threatening two western Montana towns and millions of feet of standing white pine.

High winds, abnormally high temperatures combined with parched forests are all but rendering the efforts of 1,000 men fighting the many forest fires, useless.

The towns threatened are Atherton and St. Regis, in Montana.

Between 700 and 1,000 acres in the Helena forest are burning, ravaging some of the finest timber and destroying an old mining camp 1-1/2 miles from York. The blaze has been burning for weeks, most of the time under control, but Thursday's high wind spread it rapidly and the fighters are being beaten steadily backward.

SENATORS MUM AFTER HEARINGS

Conference Between Wilson and Republican Senators Continued Today.

Konyon, Kellogg, Capper and McNary Summoned for the Day.

Foreign Relations Committee Busy.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18.—President Wilson continued his conferences with republican senators today, discussing the peace treaty and the League of Nations covenant at length with Senators Kenyon, of Iowa, and Kellogg, of Minnesota.

Later he had engagements with Senators Capper of Kansas and McNary, of Oregon.

Neither Senator Kenyon, nor Senator Kellogg would discuss their conversation with the President, but as he went to the White House Senator Kenyon said he intended to ask about the statement of Senator Swanson, democrat, in the Senate recently, that the United States could withdraw from the league whenever it desired, adding that this was a very important point which would clarify the situation.

While the President was conferring with the Senators the Foreign Relations Committee continued its session. The reading of the text may be completed this week.

BAD ORDER COAL CARS PILE UP ON ALL ROADS

Country Facing Possible Fuel Famine Due to Neglect.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Coal cars piling up everywhere waiting repairs while the country faces fuel shortage and the railroad administration and car owners arguing over damages were pictured to the House Rules Committee today by Geo. PERSHING AND MARCH TO BE MADE GENERALS

Recommendation for Permanent Rank Made to Congress by President.

TWO MEN ARE AT OUTS

Deep Interest Centered Upon Rank—Two Admirals Also Recommended.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Permanent rank of General in the regular army for General Pershing and General March, and permanent rank of Admiral for Rear Admiral Sims and Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations, were asked of Congress today by President Wilson.

The rank of General which Pershing and March now hold only exists in the emergency army, rapidly being disbanded. The two admirals during the war held that rank but recently went back to a lower grade.

No one in Washington now ventures if the President's recommendation bore any relation to the long reported friction between Pershing and March. Friends of both men, however, anxiously have been waiting to see what permanent rank would be given them.

There is no official recognition of friction between the two generals but army circles on the inside fairly teem with it.

As talk in army circles has it, General Pershing felt that many of his recommendations from France ran a tortuous course after reaching the office of the chief of staff in Washington.

ELYRIA—Myron Hughes, aged 38, was drowned while swimming in an abandoned quarry hole at Columbia Station. The body has not been recovered, and is at the bottom of a 100-foot hole.

RUSS SEEKING AID IN JAPAN

(By Associated Press)
Tokio, June 10.—(By Mail)—General Romanovsky has been sent here by Admiral Kolchak, leader of the All-Russian government, at Omsk, to negotiate with the Japanese for munitions and general supplies for the Russian army.

Although the Japanese government in the past has been actively interested in Colonel Semenoff, the Cossack leader at Chita, there is a disposition here now to get into closer touch with the Kolchak government at Omsk on the ground that it is a serious movement for the pacification of Russia and the reconstruction of that troubled country.

NOAH H. SMITH RESPECTED MAN DIED THURSDAY

Injuries Received Weeks Ago Resulted in Death at Fayette Hospital.

One of the Strong and Successful Men Who Played A Big Part in County's Development.

Following weeks of acute suffering and a brave struggle for life, aided in every way by his devoted family, expert medical skill and nursing, Noah H. Smith, retired farmer and well known resident, died at the Fayette Hospital Thursday evening, at twenty minutes past eight.

One of the respected citizens and sterling men of the county, belonging to one of the early families, extensively engaged in farming, and accomplishing a big part toward the development of agricultural interest, Mr. Smith's death arouses deep regret throughout the community.

Everybody liked Noah Smith—his genial and likable personality, combined with many fine traits in winning friends by the score, who have anxiously awaited the outcome of his long illness.

Mr. Smith had not been in good health for some time, but was showing decided improvement, when he suffered the accident, which really was the cause of his death.

Although his farms were rented, he retained an active interest in their management, and it was while seeing to his own affairs on one of his farms, after the conclusion of some work about the farm, he was putting a horse in the barn when without warning the animal kicked him above the knee, resulting in a bad break of the bones. At some considerable distance from the house he lay seriously injured for some time before he could summon aid. When Mr. Smith was found some time after the accident suffering excruciating pain, he was removed to the hospital. Every effort was made to save the life of the injured man. The fractured limb refused to heal and a week ago it was amputated, but the weakened and aged man could not recover from the shock and death resulted.

Mr. Smith was 73 years of age. He leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Foreman, of Cleveland, and Miss Ruth at home, besides one sister, Mrs. Rachel Darlington, and three brothers, Messrs. Jacob C. Lou, and William R. Smith.

Gasoline Certainty

You, Mr. Car Owner, are more interested in the above declaration than you would be if we stated it in more embellished language. Whether it is "genuine" this or "genuine" that doesn't interest you half so much as the miles per gallon you get; and you care little from what part of the country it comes, so long as it is "good for your motor" and healthful for your purse. Liberty Gasoline is "genuine gasoline", and that's all, excepting that it gives you more miles per gallon with greater satisfaction.

EGG CANDLING RULES ARE RIGID

In order to provide against the spoiling of eggs and to protect producers and consumers by preventing dealers from trafficking in bad eggs, the following rigid regulations have been adopted and will be enforced by the Department of Agriculture:

"Rule 22. Between May 15 and January 15 of each year, all eggs in the market, or intended for market, shall be handled only on a candling basis, and no payment either in cash or merchandise shall be made for those unfit for food. A statement shall be made in duplicate by the buyer of each purchase of eggs, showing the number of good, damaged and bad eggs in each lot, one copy of which shall be given to the person from whom the purchase is made and the other to be kept on file for one year, and subject to inspection at all times by any health or food inspector.

"Rule 23. During the warm season all eggs shall be kept in a cool place all lots of 30 dozen or more shall be packed in strong, standard egg cases and fillers, well protected from breakage, all cracked ones being packed in separate cases from those which have sound shells. From May 15 to January 15 of each year, each case of eggs shall contain upon the top layer a properly dated and signed candling certificate.

"Rule 24. No person, firm or corporation shall sell, offer or expose for sale, or have in possession for the purpose of sale, any eggs unfit for human food, unless they are broken in the shell and then denatured in such a way that they cannot be used for food. An egg shall be deemed unfit for food if it be addled or moldy, have black or white rot or a blood ring, has a bloody, white or adherent yolk, or if it consists even in part of a filthy decomposed or putrid substance. Any person violating any of these rules or provisions will be subject to the penalties provided by the statutes."

ROCKEFELLER GIVES HOSPITAL.
New York, July 18. — John D. Rockefeller has presented a hospital to the city of New York to be placed on Warwick Farm, formerly a city home for inebriates, but which, now that the country has gone dry, is to be turned into a home for drug addicts. The building was erected during the war at a cost of $300,000, as a war demonstration hospital.

If the people get to like buttermilk, will that also be prohibited?

FARM NOTES

Grape Rot and Tomato Blight
Prevented by Spraying

In many places throughout the state grapes are about the only fruit that was left by the frost and now the grapes are beginning to rot.

Grape rot, as well as tomato blight and tomato leaf spot, may be controlled by spraying two or three times with bordeaux at intervals of ten days.

Small amounts of bordeaux may be made as follows: Dissolve one ounce of copper sulphate, commonly known as blue stone or as blue vitriol, in one-half gallon of water; dissolve one and one-half ounces of hydrated lime in another one-half gallon of water; then pour the two solutions together and spray at once.

There are many proprietary spray mixtures containing copper sulphate on the market. Some of these mixtures give satisfactory results.

Flowering Perennial Seeds

Planted Now Bloom Next Year

Now is the time to plant the seed of flowering perennials such as columbine, larkspur, sweet William, pink, coreopsis, hollyhocks and Canterbury bells. The seeds should be planted in rows four or five inches apart either in a box in a sheltered place or in a cold frame covered with slats. When the plants have grown two or three leaves they should be transplanted to places desired. Such plants make desirable growth before winter and bloom the following season. They should be mulched or otherwise partially protected during winter.

Tractor Demonstrations

Four of the largest farm tractor demonstrations ever held will be given at Columbus, July 28 and 29; Middletown August 1 and 2; Fostoria August 6 and 7; and Akron August 12 and 13. Thirty tractors will operate at each place.—O. S. U. Bulletin.

COMMERCIAL TRUCK NOW IN OPERATION ON PUBLIC HIGHWAY

As indicative of what may be expected in this county in the near future, announcement is made that a Xenia firm beginning Friday, will operate commercial truck service between Dayton, Xenia and Wilmington for the purpose of transporting freight to anyone who wishes to have such freight transported.

For sometime such service has been in operation between Xenia and Dayton, and has proven so popular since railroad rates have become so excessive that the service has been extended by the firm.

It is expected that within a few years over land routes will be opened between this and other cities for transportation of goods from and to this city.

STILL ON TRAIL OF HORSE BEATERS

Sheriff Hall and deputies are still on the trail of the two men who are wanted for mercilessly beating and driving a horse owned by a man named Newland, residing near Milledgeville.

Affidavits were filed for the men, it will be recalled, and two men suspected of being the pair were arrested in Circleville and brought back here for identification, but proved to be the wrong men.

IN MEMORY OF ARZA BENIT GIDDING

Again we pause and ponder at the lot of life. When lingering illness claims its victim, we go half reconciled to view the common fate of man. But when death places its icy touch on strong and active manhood, we are unprepared for the unbidden call and the sudden shock, that follows the inrush of sorrow and bitter grief to the human heart. So this community received the news of the passing of Arza B. Gidding with a shudder of disappointing grief as it remembered him almost to the last moment in the full measure of life entering upon every community activity with heart, conscience, and zeal that portrayed a high character of good citizenship.

"Ben" Gidding as he was commonly called was born in Adams County, Ohio, September 19th 1873, lacking two months and five days of reaching the age of 46 years at the time of his death, July 14th, 1919.

He was the son of John and Rebecca Gidding, both of whom are dead. Two brothers and one sister survive him. Ella Montgomery, of Greenfield, Ohio, and James of Dayton, and H. W. Gidding of Milledgeville, Ohio.

He removed to Fayette County with his parents when a mere child and received the most of his education in the country schools, attending first

That Fayette county is famous as the home of fine hogs received additional proof Thursday when Mr. W. P. Perry, of Rando, Ohio, and Mr. H. A. Sexsmith, of Omaha, Nebraska, field men representing The Duroc Bulletin, each purchased of the H. K. Stewart Estate, for South Dakota and Minnesota breeders and raisers of fine hogs, ten head of Duroc open gilts, paying $100 each for these splendid "porkers."

The visitors also purchased a fine spring pig.

Naturally Fayette countians will be pleased to learn of this latest recognition, from distant states, of the fame of our Durocs.

ANOTHER BOUT IN NEAR FUTURE

Within a short time another boxing bout and wrestling match will be put on in this city, it is understood, and definite announcement of the event is expected in the near future.

The bouts here on July 4th proved highly popular to both men and women, and it is expected that the next bouts will be even more of a drawing card, as plans call for exceptionally good talent for both boxing and wrestling events.

Manager Chic Salyor will be in the city in the near future and complete final arrangements for the meet.

The Big Issue

After waiting for several days, with no acceptance of his offer to meet with the senators, at any time requested, and discuss with them the provisions of the League of Nations and the need for their adoption, President Wilson extended special invitation to some of the Senate leaders, opposing the pact, to confer with him at the White House.

The people of America sincerely hope that all the "offended" senators will lay aside their pride, if that's the proper name for whatever ails them, and either ask President Wilson to come to the Senate or accept his invitation to the executive offices and discuss with him, frankly, all phases of the League of Nations proposal.

It seems impossible that any senator can permit a personal grievance against President Wilson, real or fancied, to be the foundation of opposition to such a tremendous proposal.

It is the interest of the people of the United States and the people of the world which are at stake. The personal likes and dislikes of the senators is unimportant. The injury, if one there has been, to the pride of any senator can not be cured at such a cost as the murder of the league proposal.

That might please the senators; that might allow them to "get back" at President Wilson, but would be the people who would be hurt.

It is to be hoped that all the senators will rise to the occasion, as some are doing now, seek all the information obtainable and act conscientiously and intelligently on the proposals unprejudiced by their personal hatred of the executive.

President Wilson has offered his services to assist the Senate in reaching a conclusion and the people will not approve a sullen refusal by any of the senators. Certainly they know that.

Investigating Time

Criticism of official war work activity is to be expected. It is right and proper that the expenditure of such staggering sums as those involved in the nation's preparation for and conduct of the war should be subjected to the closest scrutiny.

The legislative branch of the government is the one vested with the authority to dispose of the people's money. The executive branch has no authority under the constitution to "dip into" the treasury, no matter what the occasion may be, nor no matter what its urgency.

In the world war Congress followed established precedent and met the need as it arose. Almost carte blanche authority was given the executive branches, the vast wealth of the nation was placed at their disposal. They spent with a lavish hand. The day of accounting has come.

The executive department must account to Congress and Congress must account to the people whose money was spent.

Was there any wrongful expenditure; was there any unnecessary, inexcusable extravagance, measured by the rule of the time during which the expenditures were made? Those are the questions and the inquiry should be confined to them.

Supply and Prices

It is generally understood, generally accepted as a fact, that the war department is holding scores of millions of dollars worth of clothing, shoes and non-perishable food stuffs, the unconsumed portion of our tremendous war purchases.

The release of these stores would, if made all at once, unquestionably cause an increase in supply and result in a fall in prices which might be disastrous to trade conditions, but there seems no good reason, now, why the authorities could not release gradually these vast stores and allow them to filter into the channels of trade, bringing relief gradually and in a manner which would cause no sudden and dangerous "jolting" of the markets.

No nation ever faced commercial problems more serious than those which are, at this time, confronting the United States.

Production must be kept up, by legislation, or official order, to the limit of capacity and at the same time the rights of the American consumer as well as the American dealer must be safeguarded. America is the storehouse and the market place of the world. War-poor foreign nations and people are willing to pay and are offering unheard-of prices. It is the task of those who have been entrusted with the affairs of government to so shape the course of the ship of state that the consumer may get the advantage of the tremendous prices offered and that the cost to Americans be no more than domestic conditions warrant.

It's a problem which, in its conditions, is without precedent.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE FLOWER SPIRIT.

I am the spirit that dwells in the flower,
er,
Mine is the exquisite music that flies,
When silence and moonlight reign
over each bower
That blooms in the glory of tropical skies,
I woo the bird, with his melody glowing,
To flit the sunshine and warble its strain;
And mine is the odor, in turn, that bestowing,
The songster is paid for his music again.

There dwells no sorrow where I am abiding;
Care is a stranger, and troubles us not;
And the winds, as they pass, when
to hastily riding,
I woo, and they tenderly glide o'er the spot.
They pause, and we glow in their rugged embraces;
They drink our warm breath rich with odor and song.
They hurry away to their desolate places,
And look for us hourly, and think of us long.

Who, of the dull earth that's moving around us,
Would ever imagine that, nursed in a rose,
At the opening of spring, our destiny found us
A prisoner until the first bud should unclasp;
Then as the dawn of light breaks upon us,
Our winglets of silk we unfold to the air,
And leap off in joy to the music that won us,
And made us the tenants of climates
so fair?

GOVERNOR'S HOME TO BE READY BY SEPT. 1

Columbus, Ohio, July 18.—Former Governor Campbell, chairman of the governor's home commission, said Thursday vigorous efforts will be made to have the former Lindenborg property, East Broad Street, ready for occupancy by Governor Cox Sept. 1.

This date has been selected because the commission wants the governor to have a Columbus home, if possible, other than a hotel suite, during the national G. A. R. encampment, beginning Sept. 7.

BELIEVES HE HAS SIDESTEPED THE SURGEON'S KNIFE

AND THOMAS WEBB, OF NEAR COLUMBUS, SAYS IT'S ALL DUE TO NERV-WORTH.

This remarkable statement was recently made to the Nerv-Worth agent at Columbus:

Mykrantz & Co. — Since 1910 I have suffered from chronic appendicitis. Was very nervous and could not sleep. Stomach in bad condition. Was weak and run down and discouraged. Doctored a great deal but got no benefits. I saw Nerv-Worth statements in the Columbus papers and decided to try it. After using one bottle I am entirely cured of nervousness. Stomach and digestion in good condition. Sleep soundly all night throughout and am gaining in health and strength. Appendicitis has not troubled me in any way since starting the use of Nerv-Worth, and I am now sure I will avoid an operation. I certainly recommend Nerv-Worth to all.

"I certainly did look funny peering over those reading glasses."

"Well, if here isn't the old drawing that daughter made of me when I was wearing those bothersome reading glasses! What a revelation to see ourselves as others see us! I realize now how awkward and comical I appeared, ducking my head to squint over the top of my glasses every time I wanted to see objects a few feet away. And what a nuisance it was to take them off and put them on every few minutes all day long! But that bother is ended now that I'm wearing Kryptoks. I can see both near and far objects clearly and distinctly. I never have to take off my Kryptoks from morning until night."

The following account of a French War Bride's experiences is reported from Columbus.

"He leave me!"

Her face was wet with tears of fear, loneliness and that strange feeling of being in an unknown land.

Women in the rest room at the Union Station Thursday, when they discovered that she was speaking in French with a few English words interspersed and that she was suffering mental anguish, pitied her.

Jeanne is the French bride of an American officer, one of the few who have been seen in Columbus.

To those who gathered about she made it known in the little English she could speak that her greatest fear in the world—of the new world into which her husband had dropped her—was the possibility of his deserting.

"If he leave me—" she continued to sob.

Evidently those words and "All right" were the few words Jeanne knew.

When later, in the waiting room, she joined her husband all traces of near-hysteria suddenly vanished. His actions indicated anything but intention to desert.

She attracted much attention, particularly because of her short blue skirt edged in chenille fringe, her tan to match, a long tan sweater and typical French walking shoes—the kind you see in current fashion pictures of the Vicountess de Bille or somebody out for her morning walk.

Unlike the picture of French war brides, however, Jeanne was not dark and vampy. She was decidedly fair, with ringlets about her face, small in stature and with a "coat of arms and long line of ancestry" look about her.

"She is very shy," explained Lieutenant Walter Chaney, who was in France with the Thirty-third Division for two years. "I had to almost drag her up on top of the Woolworth Building to get a quick look at New York. She cried all the way up and came near hysterics. She is afraid to eat ice cream or drink ice water and won't ride in an elevator unless I pick her up and put her in."

Women at the Red Cross canteen with difficulty induced her to drink some pop. Her husband explained that practically all French brides are experiencing the same terrors upon arrival in this country.

"Merci" she whispered shyly to her new friends as he and she stepped on a train—on their way to Dallas, Texas.

GIVE LINE-UP FOR BIG GAME HERE ON SUNDAY

William Foley, manager of the Xenia Reserves, has forwarded the lineup to Manager Noon that he expects to use in game Sunday when his team meets the Athletics in this city.

The probable lineup will be: Leach, ss., DeAtley, lf., Weller, cf., Weaver, 3b., Fuller, rf., Stiles, 2b., Randall, c., Kozut and Day, pitchers. The Reserves are hitting harder than even the local team and many of the local fans are anxious to see the work of Morris against this aggregation of sluggers.

Up to the present time Morris has worked in 22 innings and has allowed 5 earned runs. He has registered 33 strikeouts in the 22innings. It is thought that this strikeout record will stand for some time in local baseball circles.

WHY THEY OPPOSE BOLSHEVIKE RULE

Ufa, Russia, April 28, (via Vladivostok, May 10.)—There are about 700,000 Bashkirs (Mohammedans of mixed Finnish and Turkish descent) living in Perm, Ufa, Viatka and Orenburg governments. They are for the most part landowners small or great and for that reason are opposed to Bolshevism, so far at least as the latter's land distribution program is concerned. Otherwise there is little difference between the Mussulman and the Russian in his attitude toward Bolshevism.

The Mussulman is opposed to Bolshevism also regarding its policy toward religion. Mass of the Mussulman population is extremely religious and believes that questions of religion are its own affairs. The merchants, like the Russian merchants, are against Bolshevism.

Abraham Akhtamov, a social democrat (Menshevik) of Ufa, a member of the first constituent assembly, a Mussulman attorney and a man of exceptional intelligence, quotes Lenin, the Bolshevik Premier, as to saying that to every Bolshevik are attached "thirty-nine scoundrels and sixty fools."

Some men voluntarily join the ranks of the benedicts, and some have to be drafted.

A local gas explosion, Chief Hetherman said, caused the fatalities.

CARRYING THE PEACE TREATY TO PARIS

SALVATION ARMY WILL SEEK FUNDS IN THIS COUNTY

When Highland County appropriated Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) from its war chest for the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign in Ohio it set the high water mark for County War Chest contributions for the campaign which the Salvation Army is now conducting for funds.

It is announced that war chests generally have already given generous and emphatic recognition to the claim of the Salvation Army upon such money and in nearly every instance war chest trustees, it is asserted, expressed the conviction that the funds collected for War Emergency Work could not be applied to a more appropriate need than that of the Salvation Army at the present time.

This is particularly true because of the tremendous work of relief which the Salvation Army is daily accomplishing among returned soldiers and sailors and their dependants.

A great many of these soldier boys are out of work, out of funds and out of hope.

The Salvation Army had not contemplated so much work on behalf of returning troops and national industrial conditions have made their usual activity highly important at the present time, so they are serving the nation at the present time just as effectively as they did while the war was still raging in Europe and they were frying dough-nuts in the trenches.

It is understood that in the near future representatives of the Salvation Army will make a concerted effort in this county to obtain funds with which to carry on the work.

WHEAT THRESHING AGAIN RESUMED

Wheat threshing throughout the county once more has become general and it is expected that with another week of good weather three-fourths of the wheat will have been threshed and disposed of.

Most of the farmers are selling their wheat as soon as threshed, deciding not to hold the wheat, inasmuch as present prices are regarded as equal to any that might come later, and the risk of wheat being damaged if held is probably greater than usual because of so much wheat of inferior quality.

It is expected that choice seed wheat will sell at a premium this fall.

JAPS TO STUDY IN U. S. SCHOOLS

(By Associated Press)
Tokio, June 14.—(By Mail).—A committee to encourage post graduate study on the part of Japanese students in American scientific institutions has been formed here. That Japanese medical students should go to the United States instead of Germany is one of the ideas behind the project.

Dr. R. B. Tensler, head of St. Luke's Hospital, Tokio, and now Red Cross Commissioner to Siberia, is one of the originators of the plan. The American Committee to handle the question has already been formed.

FAIR SAMPLE OF SPARTACAN RULE

Berlin, May 24.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press, by Mail).—The first Spartacist disturbance in or near Berlin for weeks took place last night when they invaded a democratic meeting in the suburb of Schoenberg, attacked and beat speakers and leaders, smashed the furniture and turned the meeting into one of their own. They destroyed the German flag, raised the red banner, shouted "down with Germany" and hailed Liebknecht.

The presiding officer of the democratic meeting saved himself only by wielding a heavy bell effectively against the invaders.

As soon as the democrats were dispossessed, the communist leader, dressed in stolen finery with fingers covered with diamonds led frantic denunciation against the government leaders whom they called rascals and bloodhounds, and said Germany was solely responsible for the war.

A democrat remaining, attempted to raise a "hoor" for the German fatherland, to which the Spartacists replied "down with it."

Communists announced they intended to break up every meeting of the bourgeoisie in the future.

IS A MERRY WIDOW

"Soon after my husband's death 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctored a great deal without benefit. Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

EXPLOSIVE LAW IS VERY RIGID

The new explosive law which becomes effective within a short time is much more rigid and the punishment provided is much greater than any previous law.

So rigid are its provisions that it is punishable by heavy fine and imprisonment, or both, for a dealer to carry more than 50 pounds of explosive in his place of business, unless he wishes to carry an additional 50 pounds and keeps it in an entirely different part of the building and the explosive in a fire proof container which can be speedily removed from the building in case of fire.

If any dealer carries more than the above amount, he must have it in a fire proof structure entirely isolated from other buildings and at some distance from a public road or street.

State Explosive Inspector John H. Cliff, of LaGrange, Ohio, associated with The Industrial Commission of Ohio, was in this city making an inspection of explosive stock, and found one dealer who was carrying a larger stock than permitted by law. However the dealer made arrangements to look after the matter at once, and no action was taken.

San Juan, June 28.—(By Mail)—The Porto Rican Legislature has been asked to send a commission to Washington to ask Congress for a loan of $30,000,000 and for legislation to prevent monopoly of land in Porto Rico by large corporations. It has been proposed also that the commission should ask for a preferential tariff on coffee and for the establishment of a bank for making loans to farmers.

Advocates of the proposal want the $30,000,000 for educational purposes, irrigation, freight steamers, to pay off the island's debt and other purposes.

It is also proposed that the commission should ask Congress to grant the island complete self-government. These suggestions have aroused some opposition. Representative Lastra, has declared, that the Porto Rican Legislature has full authority to deal with the land monopoly question and that bills in the Legislature looking to that end have been defeated.
